

Hustler's Holiday Will End With Ladies' Dance Tonight

Sadie Hawkins invaded Wartburg campus this weekend and created a flurry of activities which included a movie Friday night, followed by an informal hootenanny in the lounge. This evening a play and "Hustler's Hoedown" will conclude the hustling weekend.

"Midnight Lace," the original movie, had been canceled and was replaced by "Romanoff and Juliet," starring Sandra Dee, John Gavin and Peter Ustinov. In addition, a humorous short subject, "The Little Rascals," was shown.

The rousing hootenanny in the lounge was in true Sadie Hawkins spirit. Special entertainment was provided by Kathlene and Kathrine Kriesel and Vicki Van Slyke, freshmen; juniors, Ken Swenson and Dave Zimmerman; and senior Noel Flarend.

Sophomore Sue Sutliff was in charge of this event.

The Drama Department of Augsburg College, Minneapolis, Minn., will be on campus at 8 p.m. to present "Christ in the Concrete City."

Final event of the weekend is "Hustler's Hoedown" which is this evening in the Little Theater. Ken Swenson, junior, and Bob Arneson, sophomore, will sing at the dance.

Prizes will be awarded at the dance to the dorm whose girls have hustled the most boys and to the "most eligible bachelor."

Girls' prizes will be partially based on a personal questionnaire which was given to the girls following their dates Friday night. The questionnaire probed the girls' "Sadie Hawkins manners."

Prizes are both 'useful' and 'decorative', according to sophomores Carol Wessels and Margaret Freeland who did much of the preparatory work for the dance.

Meeting, Civil War Head Convo Program

A student body meeting will be held during the convocation period Tuesday. According to Nelson Meyer, student body president, a short business meeting will be held after which the student body will choose varsity cheerleaders for the 1964-65 school year.

I. M. awards will also be given. Continuing the present convocation on the Civil War, Dr. Norman Grabener will speak on "Lincoln and the Constitution" Thursday.

Dr. Grabener received his B.S. degree from Milwaukee State Teachers College, his M.A. in history from the University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla., and his Ph.D. in history from the University of Chicago.

During the past fifteen years he has taught at Iowa State University, Stanford University and the University of Illinois. During 1963 he served as Fulbright Lecturer at the University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia.

His present position is that of professor of history, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill. He delivered the Commonwealth Fund Lectures at the University of London in January and February, 1958. Theme of the lectures was "The Revolution in American Politics, 1837-1877."

In April, 1962, he delivered the Walter Lynwood Fleming Lectures at Louisiana State University on the theme of "The Divided South, 1848."

His books include "Empire on the Pacific," "The New Isolationism" and "Cold War Diplomacy."

His other writings on American politics and foreign policy include about fifty articles or portions of books. At present he is contributing editor of "Current History." He has also edited numerous books.

His chief interest is American foreign policy, which he teaches at the University of Illinois. His course in American diplomacy was broadcast directly from the classroom throughout the 1953-1959 academic year.

From 1958 to 1960 he had a weekly program entitled, "Background of the News," over WBBM-CBS, Chicago, Ill.

Board Appoints Rev. D. Loots

The Rev. Donald Loots of Mason City has been appointed to replace the Rev. A. C. Schumacher of Madison, Wis., on the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents, according to Dr. Walter Voecks, chairman of the Board.

Schumacher resigned because he has accepted a call to an overseas position. The Rev. Loots is currently president of the Alumni Association.

New Teacher, Arthur Madsen, To Instruct Piano Next Fall

New faculty member Arthur Madsen will be an instructor in piano next fall, according to Dr. John Chellebold, dean of faculty.

Madsen is currently chairman of the piano department in Labette County Community High School at Olatomont, Kan.

He received both his B.A. and M.A. from the University of Wichita and has taught two years at Oklahoma University as assistant of piano and music history.

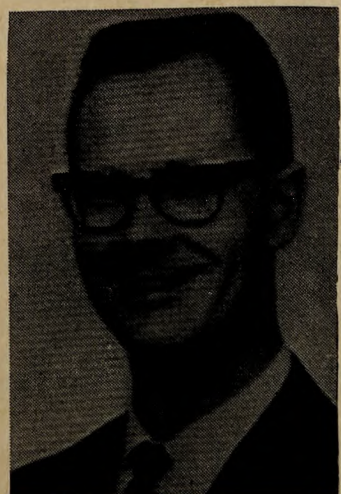

Since 1956 he has taught piano privately. For two years he was graduate teaching assistant at the University of Wichita.

Robert E. Lee, Music Department, will be on leave to continue his doctoral studies at State University of Iowa.

During his absence John E. Bentley will take over the direction of the Wartburg Band and Community Symphony.

Madsen will give piano instruction which Bentley had and that of certain part time instructors.

Wartburg Band To Perform Mon. After Completing Western Tour

Wartburg Band, returning from spring tour, will perform Monday evening in the Chapel-auditorium at 8 p.m. Students and faculty members will be admitted on activity tickets.

Under the leadership of Robert E. Lee, the band traveled through Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, performing 10 concerts.

Soloists on tour were senior James Tjaden, woodwinds; George Curtis, junior, French horn; Ron Burrichter, senior, tenor vocalist; Dick Moeller, freshman, trumpet; and freshman Art Alt, drummer. Many of their solo numbers were alternated for the different concerts.

The band, becoming famous for its variety of musical numbers, will continue to provide a diversified program.

Numbers in addition to those of soloists will be "A Fjord Symphony" by Paul Hendrickson; "Semper Fidelis" by John Philip Sousa; "Apollo March" by Anton Bruckner; "Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral from Lohengrin" by Richard Wagner; and "Overture for Band" by Felix Mendelssohn.

Second half of the program will be "Concertino for Percussion and Band" by Clifton Williams; "Legend" by Paul Creston; "Cole Porter Selections" by Cole Porter; and "Overture Solenne '1812'" by Peter Tchaikovsky.

ROBERT E. LEE, Wartburg band director, spent many hours with band members in preparation for tour and Monday evening's concert. The band will perform Monday at 8 p.m. in the Chapel-auditorium.

Seniors Will Vote On Projects

Senior class members will be voting on three items Tuesday. They will vote on a senior class project, an alumni representative and a recipient of the Distinguished Teaching at Wartburg College Award.

Class project possibilities, according to senior class president, Phil Truckenbrod, are a donation to the Science Building, lounge furniture or an addition to the organ fund.

"A donation to the Science Building would be of a general nature because of the government loan and the fact that there are no specific plans as yet," said Truckenbrod.

Money to purchase lounge furniture would be added to that of the student body project and contributing to the organ fund would add to the general outstanding fund needing $24,000.

"An alumni representative would be an individual who would serve three years as a coordinator for information and composing a biannual news letter. He would also serve on the directors' board of the Alumni Association," said Truckenbrod.

Seniors nominated for the position are Mary Ann Ahrendt, Ron Burrichter, Noel Florendo, Margaret Judt, Duane Kamrath, Al Mardorf, Jim Matthias and Ken Steege.

Distinguished Teaching At Wartburg College Award is a $100 gift to an outstanding faculty member selected by the senior class and money is given to the Alumni Association. This is the first year this annual award will be given.

"This individual should be chosen on the basis of contributions made to advancing Wartburg as a Christian liberal arts institution.

"Administration, instruction, student-faculty relations and general dedication to the position are factors that should be considered," Truckenbrod said.

Faculty members holding tenure and who will qualify for the primary nomination are Miss Jean Abramson, C. Robert Larson, Dr. Edwin Liemohn and Dr. Warren Schmidt of the Music Department.

Miss Stella M. Austerud and Dr. Herbert Max of the Education Department will be considered. William Azbell, Dr. Elmer Hertel, Dr. Leo Petri and Dr. A. W. Swensen of the Science Departments are also qualified.

From the History Department are G. Rudolph Bjorgan, Raymond Norheim and Dr. Gerhard Ottersberg. English Department members being considered are Mrs. Margaret Garland, Dr. P. A. Kildahl, Miss Erna Moehl and Dr. G. J. Neumann.

Dr. Alfred Haefner, Dr. Katherine Love and Dr. Walter Tillmanns of the Foreign Language Departments also hold tenure. Others are the Rev. Waldemar Gies, Dr. Edwin Schick and Dr. Karl Schmidt, Religion Department.

Athletic Department members Norman Johansen and Earnest Oppermann are also in the group.

Students may also select the Rev. August Baetke, Sociology Department; Dr. John O. Chellebold, Math Department and Dean of Faculty; Dr. Wilmut Fruehling, Psychology Department; Melvin Kramer, Business Department; Miss Perna Lohn, Library Science.

Mrs. Lola Reppert, Social Work Department; and Miss Helen Wright, Art Department.

Voting for these teachers and the other two items will take place Tuesday in the Union during presidential elections.

Augsburg Play Here Tonight

Drama Department of Augsburg College, Minneapolis, Minn., will present "Christ in the Concrete City" at 8 p.m. this evening in the Chapel-auditorium. This presentation is an exchange with Wartburg who will present "No Exit" at Augsburg some time in early May.

This play, which was written by W. C. Turner, is directed by Miss Ailene Cole, director Augsburg College Theatre. The play is brief (45 minutes in length) and, according to John Gill, Drama Department, will offer ample time for students to still attend Hustler's Holiday in the gym.

There will be no admission charged and dress will be informal.

4 Year Honors Program To Begin

A new unified all-college honors program for superior students has been adopted by the faculty of Wartburg College and will go into effect this coming fall.

About thirty outstanding students from each entering freshman class will be selected by a Honors Program Committee composed of representatives from each division of instruction and the Dean of the Faculty.

These students will do honors work in each course they take, providing they maintain a cumulative grade-point of at least B.

Adoption of the plan comes as a direct result of Wartburg's curriculum self-study under the guidance of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary schools. It has been approved by both the faculty and the school's Committee on Educational Policies.

Wartburg had formerly offered Honors work in several departments but did not have an all-college plan.

The program will be introduced one year at a time until all four classes are integrated into the system. Admission to it will be on a strictly voluntary basis and by invitation of the Honors Committee only.

Get Understanding!

"Get wisdom and with all that wisdom, get understanding." We find this statement in the Old Testament in the book of Proverbs.

It seems fitting that a church college should more than ever be bent on this theme. It is a part of the Bible and it should be a part of everyone's philosophy of education.

The command is to get understanding along with wisdom. The question is, how? Perhaps this is the eternal quest of students. Rather, perhaps this should be the eternal quest of students instead of grades and a diploma. Unfortunately, when one is considered for a job it isn't the understanding that is always evident, but the diploma and grades. But is it?

First, what is understanding? It may be defined as the intellectual power or the capacity of a particular person to form reasoned judgments or the power to render experience intelligible by bringing perceived particulars under appropriate concepts.

In life it may mean that what Thoreau had to say about a beautiful scene may also become a reality to you. It may mean the difference between eating a meal and not eating a meal in a foreign country if we don't understand the language. It may mean the difference between an intelligent vote and a stupid vote in government. It may mean the difference between compassion and indifference toward others.

It may mean the difference between a safe bridge and an unsafe one in engineering. It may mean the difference between life and death in the sciences.

Isn't understanding evident when we talk to our friends? Isn't understanding evident or the lack of it evident when we converse with our professors? Won't it be known as we interview for a job?

One may receive wisdom from books and from teachers but nobody is able to make us "get understanding" unless we desire it.

Isn't it our responsibility as Christian students to "Get wisdom and with all that wisdom, get understanding?"

Music, Music, Music

Plato said, "Music is a moral law. It gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination, a charm to sadness, gaiety and life to everything else. It is the essence of order and leads to all that is good, just and beautiful."

Again, Monday we have an opportunity for music. The Wartburg College Band will perform after returning from a tour of Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado.

Members of the band deserve our attention and praise the same as a championship ball team. Returning from tour is like coming home from a victorious championship, or so it seems to choir and band members as they perform on campus after tour. We should give them a welcome by attending their concert Monday evening.

This concert could answer the moral laws of music that Plato was talking about.

Of course, the keynote is listening. What should one listen for? One may listen purely for relaxation. Just sit back and let music relax or excite you. Usually, one may receive more enjoyment from a concert if we listen for something particular.

Perhaps it will be a critical listening for attacks and releases of notes. Maybe it will be listening just to marvel at the imagination of the composer who imagined what all those notes could sound like together.

Maybe it will be to watch the director bounce around on his podium, and perhaps get carried away and lose his balance. Why not listen for a particular soloist? One could try and understand the rhythm and tempo to determine what the mood is. Keep a lookout for canons too. They might resound Monday evening.

Music offers a variety, and according to the program, we should hear this variety Monday evening. Let's see if music is the essence of order and that it leads to all that is good, just and beautiful.

We're In College But Not Free Yet

By Kathryn Becker

"Listen to Mommy, sweetheart. You're just a baby. That's for big kids. You stay with Mommy and be her little helper. Mommy and Daddy don't want you to be hurt, dear. Pretty soon you'll be old enough . . . When you start kindergarten you can do things like that."

"But, Honey, you're only in kindergarten. You're too young to do things like that. Mommy will teach you how to print your name if you come straight home today. That's too rough for you . . . There's plenty of time for that when you start grade school."

"Daddy and I don't mean to be cruel, but you just aren't old enough to make your own decisions. Sometimes we have to make them for you, sweetie. We are your parents and we know what's right for you. At school your teacher is in charge. There are some things you have to learn before you can do as you please . . . It will be different when you're in junior high."

"There's no reason to rush into growing up, dear. That will come soon enough. Your father and I certainly didn't do things like that when we were your age. We are not concerned with what your friends are doing; we're only concerned with you. Why, you're only a child. You aren't old enough to decide for yourself. That's what parents and other adults are for . . . High school is the place for things like that."

"Just who do you think you are? You completely disregard everything we say. We've lived longer and seen more of life and I think we can decide something like that better than you can. You aren't adult enough to think for yourself. My goodness, what will people think? How do you think something like that looks . . . When you're in college you'll be on your own and can make your own decisions."

Eng. Series Double Feature Stars Marcel Marceau, Richard Burton

By Katie Maahs

Tuesday night two unusual shows were presented under the auspices of the English Department. The first movie, "In the Park," starred Marcel Marceau and the second, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," was narrated by Richard Burton and was filmed in Czechoslovakia.

"In the Park" was an excellent French pantomime showing the many different kinds of characters or types of people one could find in any park on any day.

Marceau's ability as a pantomimist is renowned and is ably demonstrated in this film. He plays characters ranging from two women visiting on a park bench to a bum foraging for a cigar in a trash can to a child buying a balloon from a man selling balloons in the park.

An especially good pantomime was his caricature of a man drinking from a fountain. Another was a beggar and the various types of people who gave money to him.

At times the picture was weird. For instance, the opening scene of a young boy staring at a statue that comes to life before his eyes has a tendency to be supernatural.

As the movie ends, the park is closed and the old man bent over with age, goes with the young boy and the coming chill of the evening into the fading twilight.

William Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was depicted very well by extremely

Old Columnist Sends Cheers

To the Editor:

Congratulations on your Trumpet issue of April 4, 1964. This must surely be one of the best issues of this type in recent years.

And my old contention seems vindicated: Nothing helps circulation like an occasional wall-to-wall humor column.

Well done.

Capacity Crowd To Hear Al Hirt In Spring Pops Concert Wed.

A capacity crowd will hear Al Hirt and his sextet at Wartburg College's 1964 Spring Pops Concert Wednesday.

"The man with the horn" is to perform at 8 p.m. in the Chapel-auditorium.

Tickets for the concert were gone two days after they were made available to the general public.

This is the second straight Pops Concert to be sold out. Last fall the Smothers Brothers also filled Wartburg's 1,400 seat auditorium.

Hirt has been called "the greatest exponent of jazz and the finest trumpet man of this generation."

Hirt's acquaintance with Dixieland is completely first-hand. Not only was he born in New Orleans, but he is owner and entertainer at a club in the French Quarter, Dan's Pier 600.

Hirt served his musical apprenticeship in the bands of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Ray McKinley and Horace Heidt.

He then settled down for 15 years in New Orleans with his club and family and didn't accept any outside offers until recently when he had engagements at the Palmer House, Dunes Hotel, Basin Street and the Cloisters.

With that, he rose from relative obscurity to national demand — so much so that Hirt says: "Don't hurry, folks. There's lots of me to go around, and in due time, we'll get around to all of you.

"But if you're in a real awful hurry, why not come on down to ol' New Orleans and we'll sing up a storm. I've got this little ol' trumpet here, and it'll help."

Miss Waverly To Be Chosen On Wartburg Campus May 9

Entries are now being accepted for the fifth annual Miss Waverly pageant to be held in Wartburg College's Chapel-auditorium May 9.

Sponsored by the Waverly Junior Chamber of Commerce, the pageant is the first step toward the Miss Iowa contest at Clear Lake later this summer and the Miss America contest at Atlantic City in the fall.

The winner of the local judging receives a $100 scholarship, an evening gown and an all-expense paid trip to the Miss Iowa pageant.

This year nominations may be made by anyone, but all girls will be screened by a committee. Ten finalists will then compete May 9.

In order to be considered, candidates must be between the ages of 18 and 28 on Sept. 1 and must possess a talent which can be demonstrated on stage. She must also be a high school graduate by Sept. 1 and must not be married.

Jan Friederichs, a Wartburg College sophomore, was last year's Miss Waverly.

KWAR Engineers Pass Test

Twenty-eight student engineers at KWAR-FM, college radio station, passed their third class engineer radio-telephone license examinations.

These tests were administered by the Federal Communications Commission last Thursday.

Third class license is a necessity for all students who engineer at the station after April 1, due to a new ruling of the FCC which goes into effect at that date, according to Richard Wiederanders, faculty technical adviser.

Wiederanders said that there are probably few other stations in the area which can boast of having that many qualified engineers on their staffs.

What made the 100 per cent qualifying response even more gratifying was the fact that the test was administered during mid-semester exam week when the students were busy studying for class exams.

Seniors passing the test were Verle Reinicke, Terry Havel, LeRoy Schroeder, Kay Marshak and Ray Jorgensen.

Students Take Regent's Tests

Thirty-three Regents candidates from six states took tests and were interviewed for Regents Scholarships last week.

The morning was spent taking tests, after which the candidates were guests at a luncheon at Carver's Restaurant. They were addressed by Dean of Faculty John Chellevoid.

Nelson Meyer, student body president, and Dave Hutson, president-elect, were presented. Dr. P. A. Kildahl, English Department, gave an explanation of newly adopted Honors Program.

Candidates returned to the campus and were taken on a general campus tour.

Results and winners of the Regents Scholarships will be announced within two weeks, according to Victor Pinke, admissions director.

Arabian Prom Tickets To Go On Sale Mon.

It will be springtime in Arabia when "Scheherazade" takes over for the junior-senior prom and banquet on Saturday, April 25.

Tickets for both events will go on sale Monday in the cafeteria supper lines. Seniors will be receiving free tickets and juniors may purchase them during the coming week. Prom tickets may be obtained by all students.

According to junior John Thalacker, general chairman of the weekend, activities will begin at 6:30 Saturday evening with the banquet served in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's church. The hall will be decorated as a desert oasis in keeping with the Arabian theme.

Thalacker said, "We especially urge all seniors, and as many juniors as possible, to take advantage of this opportunity for a fine hour of food and entertainment."

General chairmen for the banquet are juniors Barb Bischoff and Gwen Parlin. Other chairmen are Cheryl Sorensen, invitations; Mary Ann Herder, food; Sharon Hampton, program; and Delma Froidcoeur and Kris Benedict, decorations.

Highlighting the evening will be the formal prom for all students held in Knight's Gymnasium from 9 to 12 p.m. Music will be provided by the Ray Louis orchestra of Mason City.

"The gym will be transformed into a majestic tent of an Arabian sheik featuring magic lanterns and the dome of a minaret," summarized dance decoration chairmen Belita Sutterfield and Helen Shudlick.

Also helping with the prom are Dave Zimmerman, music; Mary Homan and Pam Whitley, refreshments; and A. Carl Schmidt, cleanup.

In charge of tickets for both events is Marian Brunscheen. Bill Westphal is handling publicity for the weekend.

PROM COMMITTEE members Barbara Bischoff, Gwen Parlin and John Thalacker consider sketches drawn by Belita Sutterfield for the 1964 junior-senior prom, "Scheherazade."

Oppiemen Take Two

Wartburg opened the 1964 baseball campaign with a pair of victories over Coe College last Saturday.

Knights took the opener 4-1 and topped the four inning night cap 5-0. Because of pre-game agreements that no inning would start after 5:30 p.m., the second game was shortened.

In the first game, all-conference outfielder Ray Bye led off with a single, stole second and third and scored on a sacrifice fly by Al Exner.

Inning four once more found Wartburg providing the excitement. Dave Langrock opened the inning with a double and moved on to third when Bob Matthias singled after Exner had whiffed.

Langrock scored on what might be termed a delayed double-steal. Matthias made his move for second and Langrock romped home on the attempted throw-out at second.

Oppiemen did the rest of their scoring in the seventh inning when Larry Dieterichs walked, Garry Medlang doubled and Bye singled.

Coe scored its only run of the game in the last half of the seventh. Leon Carley was the winning pitcher as he twirled four scoreless innings.

Wartburg could muster only three hits in the second game, but bunched two together in the second inning. Coupled with a few flaws in the Coe pitching, the Knights came up with five big runs.

Arlyn Ristau and Arlen Kruger opened the inning with consecutive bases on balls. Ristau then scored and Bill Fulcher reached first on an error. Dieterichs was also given a free pass to first which loaded the basepads for Bye.

Bye obliged with a single driving in two more runs. Roger Kittleson received the fourth Wartburg walk of the inning. Langrock then singled for his second hit of the day scoring Dieterichs. Bye closed out the scoring for the Knights.

Langrock took the victory after pitching the first three innings. Doyle Burn hurled the final frame for the Knights.

CARRISON'S

JUNIOR CINDERMAN Harold Shudlick clears a high hurdle in Thursday's track meet. The Knights defeated the University of Dubuque's Spartans 91 to 40 in the first clash of the season.

Knights Mop Spartans In First Track Meet

Wartburg cindermen raced past the Spartans from the University of Dubuque to win the opening meet of the Knight's 1964 outdoor track season 91-40.

Knights placed in all events but the 220-yard dash and swept the 120-yard high hurdles, the high jump and the 220-yard low hurdles.

The two-mile run showed Lothar Columbus way out in front followed by Roger Palmer, both Knights and strong cross-country runners. Third place was a fight between James Rasmuson of Wartburg and Sage of Dubuque.

The third place slot changed hands many times during the event. Sage finally passed Rasmuson for the last time half way through the final lap and went on to place.

In the mile relay Wartburg led the Spartans from the very beginning. The lead was fairly even during the first three rounds of the track. A poor handoff by Dubuque in the anchor-man round gave the Knights the deciding lead.

Teams Begin Playing Coed I.M. Volleyball

Intramural coed volleyball started this week with games played on Monday and Thurs-day. There are an average of twelve players, six girls and six boys, on each of the 13 teams.

In Monday night's action Neal Steiner's team edged Virg Werning's team out in two close games. The score of the first game was 10-7 and the second was 10-8.

Werning and Verlyn Wendt were the outstanding players in a losing cause while Arlene Dor-sey of Steiner's team turned in the best play of any of the girls.

Karl Fink and John Thalack-er's teams lost to Arlyn Ristau and the Married Men respective-ly. Both Fink and Ristau man-aged to win one game, but each lost two.

In the other three games played Monday night, Dick

Herrmann's team won two in a row from Bill Olmstead, Linc Johnson won by a forfeit over Oren Swenson and Leon Carley took two in a row from Dan Knobloch.

Carley also won two in a row on Thursday night, beating John Thalacker 15-4 and 15-2. Car-ley's team appears to be the team to beat as Aivars Zosulis, Jim Gumbel and John Hougard, plus Carley himself, all add strength.

Couple this with the fact that Carley picked some of the best girls playing, Karen Johnson, Barb Burke and the threesome of Sue Stueber, Marty Krueger and Debbie Schmidt. One finds this team hard to beat.

Virg Werning lost two more to Arlyn Ristau, Fink took Facul-ty in two, Olmstead beat John-son, Steiner lost two out of three to Herrmann and Knobloch won over Swenson by forfeit to wrap up Thursday night's games.

Becker Picks Luther As Top Track Power

By Mike Becker

The track season has officially begun. Prospects for the frozen thinclads look good this year. To my thinking, the confer-ence track power should be one of these three schools — Luther, Dubuque or Wartburg.

The edge has to be given to Luther because of the number of lettermen returning from last year's championship squad. Dubuque and Wart-burg should follow closely behind the Norsemen.

I think that this year we possess one of the strongest track squads ever assembled on the dear old, ivy-covered campus of Wartburg.

Lack of depth in several events appears to be our only weak spot. We can put two or three good men in every running event on the program.

Becker

As usual, the field events may be our most vulnerable spot. In the broad jump, Lowell Syverson, with some hard work, is capable of breaking the school record of 22' 4". In the pole vault, Jim Fliehler, and the busy man of the track team, Jerry Zehr, give us a couple of promising young pole vaulters.

We have one good high jumper in Joel Niemann with several untried underclassmen backing him up. This should be quite differ-ent from the days when we could count on a 1-2-3 in the high jump with all the jumpers around six feet.

In the discus Jim Woessner is held in high regard by the coaches. Mike Peich should be pushing the iron ball past his record of last year with Gayle Newlon and Dennis Rubenow giving him adequate support.

In the javelin Bob Wachholz, with a longer spear, should be setting all kinds of records if he can keep it away from the janitors. Gary Leeper, also throws the spear, often well enough to win some of the meets if it wouldn't be for his friendly rival. Gary also helps out in the broad jump and high jump.

Two important events which may make or break us this year are the relays. The 880-yd. relay and the mile relay add ten points to the winner's side and often mean the difference in a meet.

Often these events aren't worked on very much because of the need for the relay runners to work on their own specific events. Faulty baton exchanges are the downfall of many a fast relay team.

The next track column will feature the runners for Coach Olson.

Starring Judy Holiday, the musical had two successful seasons on Broadway. Songs appearing are "Just in Time," "The Party's Over" and "Drop a Name."

Congregation Council Chosen For 1964-65

Church council members for the 1964-65 school were elected Thursday, according to Al Goldammer, president of the Student Congregation.

New council members are sophomores Mark Quade, Eleanore Gerdes, Harold Blobaum, Keith Piller and Merdys Anderson.

Juniors elected are Nancy Rahn, Mary Totsch, James Gronewold, Dennis Heaney and Judy Lanaghan.

16 Attend Washington Seminar

Sixteen Wartburg College students joined approximately two-hundred others from colleges throughout the country during the fifteenth annual Washington Seminar for Lutheran Students for a close-up look at the workings of our national government.

Representing Wartburg at the Seminar were seniors Duane Kamrath, Ed Nieman and Myrna Lau; juniors Gerald Baldner, Gary Baumann, Mike Becker, Bob Bone, Owen Jordahl, Grace Hemmingson, Shirley Mielke and Shirley Zellmer.

Sophomores attending were Bill Hamm, Bill Tufford and Gail Seedorff; and freshmen Joyce Weidler and Dave Foege.

In the nation's capital, students had an opportunity during the four-day seminar to observe the federal government in operation, discuss current issues, clarify the responsibilities of Christian citizens in a democracy and appraise the role of Christians in public life.

Sessions were held throughout the city in various government offices and Lutheran churches from March 22-25, in the annual event which is sponsored by the public relations units of the National Lutheran Council and the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

In a keynote address, Dr. Robert E. Van Deusen, Washington Secretary of the National Lutheran Council's Division of Public Relations, told the students that for the Christian citizen, intelligent participation in the processes of government is not an optional matter.

At the Pentagon, the students were given background information on the role of the U.S. Armed Forces in world affairs, equal opportunity in military service and character guidance programs for servicemen and women.

Sessions held at the State Department centered on current foreign affairs issues.

In addition to attending sessions of the Senate and the House of Representatives, students had an opportunity to meet with their Congressmen.

Congressman Clark MacGregor of Minnesota discussed "progress and problems in civil rights" during a luncheon talk.

Others who addressed the students included Richard W. Reuter, director of Food for Peace, who spoke on the cry of hunger and U.S. surpluses and Julius Cahn of the Senate Government Operations Committee staff who described how national policies are formed.

Nathaniel Davis of the Peace Corps told about purposes and programs of the young agency and Ray Scherer, NBC congressional correspondent, gave a newsman's view of the nation's capital.

At the end of the Washington Seminar, Baldner, Baumann, Becker, Jordahl and Foege went to New York City where they spent two days on another segment of the Seminar.

They toured the United Nations and sat in on a meeting of the Economic and Social Council.

Members of the group will discuss the Seminar in more detail tomorrow after the Student Congregation Services.

Spring Carnival To Be Held Next Sat. In Gym

Wartburg's annual spring carnival will be held next Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Knight's Gymnasium. Theme for this year's event is "Circus in Space." The carnival will aid the Student Body Project in payment of new Student Union carpets.

Booths and concessions sponsored by various campus organizations will lend a carnival atmosphere to the gym.

One rather original idea will be the laying of a ring of pennies around the gym floor. Each student's contribution will help this particular project.

Sophomore co-chairmen Jack Wendt and Mike Zolnosky urge all students to come join the fun and help furnish the new union.

Carpet for the union has already been ordered, and Mike stated, "If we want that carpet, we'll have to all help raise the $1,200."

SENIORS CAROL Hengeveld and Ken Friday take time out of a busy day to cast their ballots in one of the recent campus elections. Senate members and class presidents will be elected before the month is over.

Sophomore Neil Steiner and other members of the Elections Committee have put in many hours of work.

Presidential Elections To Be Tues. In Union

Primary elections for class presidents will be held Monday in the Union lounge between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., according to Nelson Meyer, student body president.

Primaries will be necessary for both sophomore and senior class presidents. Only three persons will appear on the final ballot for Tuesday's election.

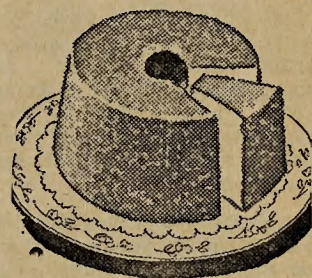

Those running for sophomore class president are Richard Turk, Clarion; Larry Pleggenkuhle, Hawkeye; Art Alt, Chicago, Ill.; Norman Stubbendick, Syracuse, Neb.; Michael Bradshaw, Aurora, Colo.; and David Ziegler, Reading, Pa.

Junior class president hopefuls are William Hamm, Clarion, and Roger Prehn, Verona, Wis.

Five are running for senior class president. They are James Folkerts, Reinbeck; Robert Braun, St. Paul, Minn.; Harold Shudlick, Rice Lake, Wis.; Randy Marsh, Robbins, Ill.; and Royce Kruehl, Fennimore, Wis.

Final elections will be Tuesday in the Union from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.
